

Cognition

1. Basic Education of theory of Gandhi focused on _____.

- a. Promoting Reading skills
- b. Promoting native experiential skills
- c. Promoting integrated science
- d. promoting physical fitness

2. Vygotsky's Socio-cultural development theory suggested intensive learning in _____.

- a. Closed Classrooms
- b. Zone of Proximal Development
- c. Effective instructional models provided by the teacher
- d. Facilitation of good libraries in schools

3. Which of the following theories subscribed to a reward and punishment system?

- a. Connectivism
- b. Cognitivism
- c. Behaviourism
- d. Constructivism

4. Which of the following statements was detailed by the constructivist theory?

- a. People constructed their own subjective representation of objective reality
- b. people constructed their own objective representation of subjective reality
- c. People were blind both to objective and subjective reality
- d. Perceptions had no impact on learning

5. Which of the following in Bloom's Taxonomy is a part of the ability to translate?

- a. Comprehension
- b. Analysis
- c. Application
- d. Evaluation

6. Which of the following tools is not used for measurement of motor skills?

- a. Distance
- b. Speed
- c. Procedures
- d. Motivation